An event sanction indicates that this event is listed in the Association's official calendar and that the relevant AMA events code, discipline regulations and event regulations may be used as a guide. It does not indicate that your safety has been warranted by the AMA, nor the promoter, sponsor, organiser, landowner or other agency. To some extent, the use of all motor vehicles/ vessels is inherently dangerous. You should take part in this event based on your own assessment of your abilities and suitability of your motor vehicle/ vessel. The AMA urges you to wear appropriate personal protective equipment and to receive professional instruction before operating a motor vehicle/ vessel. We urge you not to operate a motor vehicle/ vessel without personal medical and ambulance coverage. If you have any doubts at this time about your personal ability to participate in this event, if you have not adequately prepared yourself and your equipment, if you question the condition and safety of your motor vehicle/ vessel, or the event areas, water bodies, roads, tracks or trails, or if you believe your insurance coverages are not adequate to compensate you for any loss that might occur, we urge you to notify the event organiser, who may refund your entry fee depending on the terms and conditions.

Always remember safety first, motor responsibility. Enjoy Australia, don't destroy it!!
